

Susan is pleased to join the Friends of the Alaska State Library Archives and Museum board. Susan worked for the State of Alaska for 30+ years, most recently as manager of Legislative Research Services. She is currently a volunteer for the Friends of the Library Bookstore and the Juneau-Douglas City Museum.

Susan's first love is history and she has researched and written about the roles of working women in Juneau during the early 20th century. The state library's historical collection was vital to her research. Susan has a deep appreciation for the SLAM and its commitment to preserving and interpreting Alaska's diverse and rich cultures. The collections provide an important context to understanding the past and present
